10 The City of North Las Vegas' Motion To Quash Subpoenas

11 The City moved to quash both Plaintiff and Defendant's subpoenas of Detective Edwing 12 Melgarejo and Sergeant Justin Ryan. (#27). The City argued that the subpoenas should be quashed as 13 any information or testimony from Detective Melgarejo or Sergeant Ryan is protected by the law 14 enforcement privilege. Id. During the hearing, the Court addressed the arguments raised in the 15 Plaintiff's Response to the Motion (#30), particularly the three general questions that Plaintiff's counsel 16 would like to ask Detective Melgarejo during the deposition. (#37). The court also addressed the 17 Defendant's broader subpoena. Id. After hearing arguments from the parties, the court ordered the 18 parties to meet and confer and, within two (2) weeks from the date of hearing, to file a stipulated
19 discovery plan, including the agreed upon questions, and a stipulated protective order.¹ Id. The Court
20 ordered that if the parties are unable to agree upon questions, the Court would limit the questions as

15 The Defendant moved this court for a Protective Order precluding the noticing of depositions of 16 Globe Life employees in Las Vegas. (#26). During the hearing, the Court addressed the presumption
17 that the Plaintiff would have to depose the person most knowledgeable in Oklahoma. (#37). The Court
18 also heard representations from counsel regarding concerns with the burden of travel. Id. The court 19 ordered the Plaintiff to choose one of the following options:

- 20 1. Deposition in Las Vegas. If Plaintiff chooses to have the deposition in Las Vegas, Nevada, 21 then the Plaintiff must pay coach fare travel and reasonable accommodation for the person 22 most knowledgeable. When scheduling the deposition, the Plaintiff must coordinate with and 23 give deference to the person most knowledgeable.

5 are limited to those herein.

6 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Plaintiff must choose between (1) paying costs for holding
